

Amalia Barreiro Gensman is a native of Mexico City. She has 40 years of teaching experience. She has been World Languages Department Coordinator and teacher at Eisenhower Senior High School and has worked as an adjunct teacher at Cameron University in Lawton, Oklahoma. She has been a College Board Consultant for 14 years. She has also participated in the Advanced Placement Exam Reading for 14 years. Amalia is former Vice-Chair of the State of Oklahoma Textbook Selection Committee and former member of the State of Oklahoma Teacher Certification Examination Committee. In September 2010, she received the Eusebio Beltran Educator of the year award. In March 2014 she received the Golden Eagle Award for Excellence in Education from Lawton Public Schools. She is currently semi-retired concentrating in AP teaching and consulting.

Amalia Barreiro Gensman
amalia@gensman.com