

Lori Dumerer teaches AP US Government and Politics, AP Macroeconomics, and AP United States History at RL Turner High School in Carrollton, TX and had served as AP Lead Social Studies for CFBISD for two years. She had taught at North Dallas High School in Dallas, TX where she also served as Social Studies Department Chair. Additionally, she held the position of Dean of Faculty at Long Trail School in Dorset, Vermont. A curriculum writer and author, her articles have appeared in the state social studies journal. A College Board Trained Consultant in AP Government and Politics, she presents selected topics for both AP Government and Pre-AP topics at national AP conferences. Mrs. Dumerer holds a BA in Social Studies with a major in History and an MA in Social Studies and Education from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana, and an advanced certification from Southern Methodist University in Gifted and Talented Education. For the last 14 years, Mrs. Dumerer has served as an AP Government reader. Among her awards are Texas Council of Social Studies Teacher of the Year Award for 2002, a 2008 State Department grant for work with teachers in the Republic of Georgia, the 1996 NEH Institute, the 2008 Goethe Institut Trans-Atlantic Outreach Program selections and selection for Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the World in 2000, and Who's Who in American Education. In March of 2013, she presented at a major international schools' workshop and pre-conference in Buenos Aires, Argentina for the College Board. Most recently, she accepted the 2014 Outstanding Teaching of the Humanities Award presented by Humanities Texas, the state affiliate of the national Endowment for the Humanities. In October 2017, she appeared as the featured teacher in the Student Government Affairs Program (SGAP) newsletter.