

Kathy Heller is a National Board Certified Teacher who spent many years teaching in Arkansas but is now living and teaching in Fort Worth, Texas. She has been teaching Math Remediation, Pre-Algebra, Algebra and Geometry for more years than she'd like to admit! She has won numerous teaching awards at the local, state, and national level. This is her 18th year as a consultant for the College Board where she presents at regional conferences and summer institutes.