

Judith Nevil has taught English at both the high school and college levels for 33 years. She has 23 years of experience teaching both the AP English Literature and the AP English Language courses and has been an AP reader for ten years and a Texas AP Advocate for six years. Currently, she teaches as an adjunct English professor at Grayson County Community College, Denison Texas. Previously, she taught English at Irving High School and North Lake Community College and served as AP Chair at Irving High School in Irving, Texas, where she taught for twenty-six years. This is her fourth year as an APSI consultant and her fifteenth year as a district AP consultant and mentor. In 2011, the Irving Independent School District honored her as secondary teacher of the year and in 2017, she received the Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award. Judith holds a B.A. and an M.A. in English from the University of Texas at Arlington and a Gifted and Talented state certification and endorsement from the University of North Texas.